

You would like to propose an activity to strengthen the relations between your employees ?
Our chef invites you in his kitchen for a unique team building experience !

The Galloping Gourmet

In order to enhance your team spirit, we invite you to initiate your colleagues and employees to the culinary techniques. In this activity, all participants will have the chance to help each other , share and create a complete menu based on regional products, which they will then be able to taste together.

You may also go for the wine pairing option with the help of our sommelier Thomas.

Offer you collaborators a unique experience and give them the chance to enjoy and appreciate each other in a relaxed environment.

Our « In the kitchen » team building activity is renown for its positive impacts ;
Will you be the next to try it!
